

“I’ll Leave The God Part To God!”

Coming Down the Mountain With Confidence #2

Romans 9:16-26 September 24, 2006

Sometimes in the church we have the “God is _____” theology.

1. God Can _____ What He _____!

The sovereignty of God: The truth about God people _____ the most.

One lie we teach our children: “You can _____ want to _____.” Truth: You can be who _____ you to be.

Conversation with God takes place for our _____ sake, not _____.

2. You Don’t Have To _____ It All!

C. H. Spurgeon was once asked if he could reconcile the two truths of divine sovereignty and human responsibility. “I wouldn’t try,” he replied, “I never reconcile _____.”

It is dangerous to approach the Bible solely looking through the _____ of any _____-_____ theological system.

3. God’s Plan Will Not Be _____!

Paul is grappling with the difficult problem of Jewish _____.

Keep in mind that the election discussed in Rom. 9–11 is _____ and not _____.

4. God Has Offered You _____!

The objects of wrath here are simply all people who haven’t yet experienced God’s _____ through Jesus Christ.

Our choice is a _____ choice, but it is made possible only by God’s Spirit _____ us to believe and be saved.
