

“Saying—‘That’s Enough’”

September 14, 2003—Psalm 23:1-2

Highline Christian Church

Message #1—“Practicing the Presence of God” Series

“The Lord is my Shepherd. I shall not want.” Ps. 23:1-2

1. I Know I’m A Sheep!

“All we like sheep have gone astray.” Isa.

Life without a Shepherd Is...

A S _____ Life (Ez.34:5)

A Be E _____ Life (Ez. 34.8)

A T _____ Life (Zech. 10:2)

A W _____ Life (Matt. 9:36)

- Sheep Are D _____
- Sheep Are D _____ (to themselves)
- Sheep Are D _____
- Sheep Are D _____

2. I Admit I Need A Shepherd!

You can’t control your m _____

You are not at _____ with everyone

We have f _____

We need f _____

3. I Learn To Be Content!

“I shall not want” Ps. 23.2

How can I be content with the Lord as my Shepherd?

He k _____ us (John 10:14)

He r _____ to us (John 10:3-4)

He l _____ us (Matt. 9:36)

He p _____ for us (John 10:10)

He s _____ for us (John 10:15)

He p _____ us (John 10:27-28)

He f _____ us (Ps. 23:5)

Contentment is not having everything you want.
Contentment is _____ everything you _____.

What are the four greatest “wants” in our life:

- L _____ me (Rom. 5:8)
- A _____ me (John 6:37)
- E _____ me (Matt. 18:4)
- P _____ me (John 10:27-28)

How can a person know if the Lord is his/her Shepherd? John 10:24-27

- They b _____
- They l _____
- They f _____

You need a real _____. According to David, you have one. He’s your _____!