

Can I Avoid Life's Consequences?

September 12, 2004

Highline Christian Church

"You're FREE...Live Gracefully!" Series Message #10

Galatians 6:7-10

We are trying to SEVER the connection between a _____ and C _____.

1. We Reap What We P _____!

"Do not be deceived; God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows.."

Gal. 6:7

We must stop sowing wild oats during the week and praying for a _____ on Sunday.

Even _____ people will reap the seed that we sow.

2. We Reap In A Different _____ Than When We Plant.

"...for at the proper time we will reap a harvest." Gal. 6:9

We can be FORGIVEN but there are still _____ to deal with.

Wise sowers sow with the _____ in mind.

3. We Reap _____ Than We Plant.

Some will wake up in hell/heaven and say—"I didn't do anything to _____ THIS!"

4. We Can Only Affect _____'s Harvest!

"Let us not become weary in doing good...as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers."

Gal. 6:9-10

Yesterday's actions are _____; tomorrow's are not!

The important thing to realize is that there is a _____ law that supersedes the law of sowing and reaping.

Although we may still experience the _____ of our actions in this world; Jesus makes sure there is no harvest of _____ in the next!